

Herbstzeit ist Wanderzeit bei uns am Bichl

a young golden eagle, guarded by his mother, draws its first circle in the sky above the Bichl

Friedrich Hebbel Herbstbild

This is an autumn day, as I didn't see any! The air is still as if you barely breathe, And yet fall rustling, far and near, the most beautiful fruits of every tree. O do not disturb them, the celebration of nature! This is the harvest itself holding, Because today only detaches itself from the branches, What falls before the mild ray of the sun.

The guest houses at the Bichl are THE hiking specialist. Andrea the host is one of the first nature guides in Tyrol and herbal pedagogue. Hiking, experience with your autumn in the Tyrolean mountains. From 27.08.2023 to mid-October you can experience your unique hiking holiday at particularly cheap conditions. Request now at info@bichl.net

The Holzknecht family looks forward to seeing you